Our Philosophy

At the Beauty Parlor, we trust in excellence with a heart. We have made a salon that offers the greatest hair services in a setting that is more advantageous for the climate, our visitors, and our staff. The Beauty Parlor is planned and fabricated fundamentally with reused materials: the floor is made of recovered wood from a nearby grain lift – protecting and exhibiting its regular surface – and a large portion of the installations and furniture is restored or unique vintage pieces.

In 1993, Zaini Beauty Parlor opened as an obscure business with a major vision. in the years since our group set the norm and offered life to that vision. We will likely never allow you to down and to surpass those desires. Our name currently sets the norm for us.

We pass on brilliant master hair items proposed to ensure our guests put their best self forward, both in the salon and at home. The hair care items we convey have been deliberately picked put together both with respect to execution and eco-affectability. As a spotless air salon, we offer ammonia-free color services with practically zero fragrance properties or substance spread. This more beneficial option in contrast to conventional shading rehearses is additionally ok for eager moms and people with hypersensitivities or aroma sensitivities.

Our plan and theory work inseparably. We are focused on giving sound hair care a low effect on the climate. Come see what you and your hair can accomplish for the Earth.
